RACE 7: MCDONALD’S SHOALHAVEN HANDICAP 1400M
An inquiry was opened today into the reasons why rider S. Miller (Typhoon Charlie) was dislodged near the 200 metres. S. Miller explained that on straightening he directed his mount out in search of clear running, however near the 200 metres whilst initially held up between Easy Mover, which was positioned to his inside and Zariz Alwyns which was positioned to his outside, as he anticipated that Easy Mover would run on which would allow him to ease Zariz Alwyns out to improve between those runners, when Easy Mover did not improve as anticipated and the run did not eventuate his mount laid in, clipped the heels of Easy Mover and blundered resulting in him becoming unbalanced and ultimately being dislodged. Whilst Stewards acknowledged that Typhoon Charlie had been inclined to lay in contributing to the incident and that Easy Mover did not improve, S. Miller was told that he must not attempt to move horses out to obtain runs when he did not have leverage on such a runner and furthermore when there was insufficient room to be improving between horses.
