RACE 3: The Mark Agency Maiden Plate1400M

Pontchartrain—After the 200 metres had to be directed to the outside of the heels of Pekna, which was weakening, to continue into clear running.

Pekna—Pulled very hard in the early and middle stages of the event and as a consequence opened up a break on the field.

Sekerna—Passing the 300 metres had to be restrained when crowded for room between Tribbiani, which shifted out slightly and made contact with the mare and Reign Over Me, (M. Cahill), which shifted in. M. Cahill was advised to exercise more care. In providing that direction Stewards accepted that Reign Over Me had laid in during the incident, however. M. Cahill was advised that whilst he made some effort to correct his mount he must also stop riding to correct his mount.

Zamaking—Passing the 1100 metres had to be steadied when tightened for room to the inside of Pontchartrain, which was crowded by Reign Over Me (M. Cahill). M. Cahill was advised to exercise more care. Making the turn near the 1000 metres had to be restrained when awkwardly positioned on the heels of Pontchartrain.

RACE 5: Capital Trophies & Sportswear Benchmark 55 Handicap1300M

Red Braids—A post-race veterinary examination of the mare did not reveal any abnormalities.

Chrissy's Dream—When questioned regarding the performance of Chrissy's Dream, rider R. Bensley stated that whilst he was obliged to make some use of his mount to go forward in the early stages he nevertheless was able to relax his mount for some distance during the middle stages. He added though, passing the 600 metres, when challenged by Honour The One, which improved to his outside his mount came off the bridle, did not respond to his riding in the straight and was very disappointing. A post-race veterinary examination of the gelding did not reveal any abnormalities.

Alba Gu Brath—Bounded on jumping and lost ground (2L).

Pink Moscato—After the 150 metres was momentarily eased when racing in restricted room between Honorary Miss and Red Braids. When questioned regarding the performance of the mare, and as was evidenced during a replay of the race, the mare had slipped behind on jumping and whilst rider S. Miller stated that his mount travelled well for the first 200 metres, thereafter the mare did not travel comfortably and further did not respond to his riding in the straight and was disappointing. He further added that typically the mare travels strongly in its races but today may not have been entirely comfortable on the Soft (6) track conditions. A post-race veterinary examination of the mare did not reveal any abnormalities.

Riverset—Passing the 900 metres was taken three-wide by Honour The One, which shifted out when racing keenly.

RACE 7: NCG Services Class 1 & Maiden Plate 2000M

Delude—Blundered on jumping.

Hilltop Hood—After being loaded into its barrier stall, the gelding got its off hind leg up on the running board for some length of time. The gelding was subsequently examined by the club's veterinary officer and passed fit to start. Following the event, after being led up into its placegetter's stall, the gelding reacted after it got a hind leg over the partition prior to being removed. A subsequent veterinary examination revealed the gelding to have sustained a minor laceration to the inside of its offside thigh.

Palamedes—Close to the line was contacted by Counterfeited, which laid in under pressure.

Roseirro—Trainer Mr T. Robinson was fined the sum of $50 under AR140B (2) for the late application of blinkers to the gelding's approved racing gear.

Argyllscoot—Stewards permitted rider N. Heywood to ride the gelding half a kilogram over its allotted weight in accordance with the overweight policy. Public announcements were made. Passing the 700 metres was contacted and taken out by Palamedes (B. Ward) which was being shifted to the outside of Delude to obtain clear running. B. Ward was spoken to regarding the abruptness of the manoeuvre and told that in similar circumstances, when shifting out in search of clear running, those manoeuvres must be executed in a more gradual manner.

Casino's Jewels—Near the 100 metres had some difficulty obtaining a narrow run to the inside of Roseirro, which shifted in slightly.

Mr Beasley—On jumping away the gelding came together with Hilltop Hood.

Opera Tickets—Slow to begin.

Reliant—Was obliged to race very wide throughout. Hung in in the straight.

Supreme Lad—Rounding the home turn was contacted by Balonne, which shifted out.

Balonne—Was crowded on jumping between Imitation Game and Dreaming Of Biscay, which shifted in. Near the 250 metres had to be restrained when disappointed for a run between Imitation Game and Dangerous Breeding, which shifted out. The gelding was then held up and unable to obtain clear running until passing the 50 metres.

Imitation Game—When questioned regarding the performance of the gelding rider App. A. Kajiya stated that whilst his mount was obliged to race wide throughout the event, in his view it was nevertheless disappointing in that it did not respond to his riding in the straight. A post-race veterinary examination of the gelding did not reveal any abnormalities.

Dangerous Breeding—Had some difficulty obtaining clear running between the 300 metres and the 200 metres.

Te Ata—When questioned regarding the performance of the mare, rider Ms K. Nisbet stated that whilst her mount was briefly held up near the 250 metres after being shifted to the inside under pressure it responded only fairly to her riding and was disappointing.

Dreaming Of Biscay—Scrambled on jumping and became unbalanced.

Classic Conquest—Stewards ordered the late withdrawal of the mare at 11.30 a.m. due to the unavailability of any rider.
